Partner

Angela Sailor is a Partner at Watts Consulting Group.

As a Partner, Angela provides public relations and governmental advocacy for clients of the Watts Consulting Group.

In addition to serving as a Partner at the Watts Consulting Group, Angela is currently the President and CEO of The Alarni Group LLC, a public relations and consulting firm specializing in marketing, grassroots advocacy and strategic planning.

Angela has served as Deputy Chief of Staff to the U.S. Secretary of Education and was responsible for strategic planning and policy implementation.

As Associate Director of the White House Office of Public Liaison, Angela was responsible for building coalitions through Presidential policy initiatives and strategic planning. Her portfolio included domestic policy that directly impacted African-American and Senior Citizen communities. Key issues included health-care, housing, Social Security and welfare.

Angela was named Director of African-American Affairs for the Republican National Committee and Victory 2000 to support the Bush/Cheney Presidential campaign. In this capacity she served as the liaison to congressional, state and local African-American Republican candidates. In addition, she worked actively to build stronger party alliances with urban based business, community, educational and faith-based leaders across America.

Prior to joining the RNC, Angela managed the Grassroots Advocacy program for the Detroit Regional Chamber of Commerce. Her legal experiences include service with Michigan Appeals Judge Jeffery Collins; United States Senator Spencer Abraham, Senate Committee on the Judiciary, Subcommittee on Immigration; Michigan Governor John Engler's Legal Division; and Detroit's Wayne County Commissioner, Kathleen Husk.

Angela's corporate experience includes communications, sales and marketing strategy for Black Entertainment Television (BET); and sales and marketing with Procter and Gamble. Her media experiences include freelance production with Fox Morning News, Washington, D.C. She has also served as a radio announcer for WGTZ FM 93 in Dayton, Ohio and WCSU, Wilberforce, Ohio.

Angela holds a juris doctorate from the University of Memphis, Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law, Memphis Tennessee; Masters in Broadcast Journalism & Public Affairs from American University, Washington, D.C. and a communications degree from Central State University, Wilberforce, Ohio.
