

Pamela Mantis
Vice President

Pamela Mantis is Vice President of Operations at the Watts Consulting Group.

Pamela is directly responsible for managing publicity and press for J.C. Watts, Jr. She is also tasked with developing strategic communications plans for a variety of corporate clients.

Pamela has over 18 years of news experience from work in both radio and television covering Latin America, Capitol Hill, The White House, the Pentagon and the State Department. During her career as a journalist, she has covered major international and national events such as the Republican and Democratic Conventions, Reagan/Gorbachov Summits, Latin American Summit: Guadalajara, Mexico, San Carlos de Bariloche, Argentina, and the Annual Human Rights Conference in Geneva, Switzerland.

Prior to joining the Watts Consulting Group, Pamela was Press Secretary for Outreach Communications at the Republican National Committee. Her duties included developing and implementing a comprehensive communications strategy targeted to minority media outlets. Her portfolio included African-American, Haitian, Greek, Eastern European and Asian/Pacific American media.

Pamela also does advance work for both President George W. Bush and First Lady Laura Bush.

A graduate of Syracuse University's Newhouse School of Public Communications, Pamela is fluent in Spanish and specializes in Latin American outreach.

In 1981, Pamela a native of Panama married Greek Cypriot Panayiotis Mantis. Today they reside in Virginia. Their daughter Erini Pamela is a student at the University of Pennsylvania and their son Mikael Panayiotis is in the 4th grade and a 2nd degree black belt in Tae Kwon Do.